

Perform operational tasks on the move

- ▶ Extension for Answer Warehousing
- ▶ Use hand held terminals
- ▶ Straightforward equivalents of screen based counterparts

A complementary extension module for Answer Warehousing, this module enables the use of hand held terminals. This allows day to day operational tasks to be performed using these devices instead of screen based functions.

Tasks are performed using simplified equivalents of screen based counterparts in the Warehousing module.

Tasks and functions performed have the same updating and integration processing as the counterparts in the main Warehousing module.
